SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

Well, folks, we have been here a couple of weeks now and begin to feel like old timers. We presume to walk down the street in our shirt sleeves and call some of our earlier acquaintances by their first names. It is a satisfaction to feel right at home in Truckee.

It seems that where ever you go one of the big problems is traffic mishaps. Most of them are avoidable and are due to rank carelessness and usually the innocent are the sufferers.

Only a few days ago, a Reno matron, accompanied by her aged mother and two children, was involved in an accident. Speeding on curves, she lost control of her machine, drove off the wrong side of the highway and crashed into a truck. Fortunately, no one was injured. Her only excuse to the traffic officer was that she was in a hurry to get home. The fact that her mother and two children had experienced a narrow escape from serious injury or death seemed of little consequence compared with her hurry to get home, where she probably spent a very quiet evening.

The installation of a sign at the Truckee-Lake Tahoe Wye may seem of little importance, but as a matter of fact it is not. It is a project which means considerable to Truckee and a matter which should be attended to as soon as possible. Motorists from San Francisco, Sacramento and other cities of the coast and valleys in driving to Truckee, who would otherwise visit Truckee en route, do not realize they are so close to the town when they turn toward the lake. A more noticeable sign than the present small marker would cause many of them to stop here for a brief time at least before continuing on their journey. The Truckee Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring installation of a sign at the intersection and should be commended for its action. The cost, we believe, would be a small matter compared to the benefits to be derived.

What's this? Not school again already!

We'll hear these words soon, now—these plaintive words of children reluctant to leave off their carefree summer frolicking. They will wonder why older folks smile and ask them if it is so tragic after all. It will be years before the youngsters can understand that school days are perhaps the happiest they will ever know.

Regardless of your favorite candidate or cause, go to the polls next Thursday and exercise the greatest right the people of these United States have—the right of self government. Don's neglect this duty and privilege. Let's give our local precincts one of the biggest votes ever cast. There are important issues to be settled, issues which will have a direct bearing on the future of the country, state and community. Your vote will decide those issues.

Construction and maintenance of highways in this area seems to be the paramount issue from the promises made by political candidates and we endorse, very heartily, this program. We would like to hear, however, a few words about promoting recreational facilities and advertising for this natural playground.

DAMAGES ARE SOUGHT IN TRUCKEE COLLISION

Damages totalling $13,115 are asked by Robert E. and Elsie Kitchen, his wife, in a suit filed in the superior court at Nevada City this week. The action is being brought against J. Roy Jones, Jr.

Jones is charged with reckless and negligent driving which, it is alleged, resulted in a collision between the car he was driving and the one in which the Kitchens were riding. The mishap occurred near Truckee last July 10.

Judge Tuttle Presides In Famous Bay Hearing

Judge Raglan Tuttle of Nevada county and Mrs. Tuttle are in San Francisco where the former is presiding in the nationally-known Hewitt case.

It is expected that the case will require several weeks to try.

NEW COURSES TO BE OFFERED AT MEADOW UNION

Vocational Training Will be Inaugurated at this Term

TWO NEW TEACHERS

School will Open here on Monday for Fall Work

When the Meadow Valley Union high school opens here Monday, students will have the advantage of three new courses being inaugurated this semester, according to Principal G. E. Hofmann.

Aside from the usual academic course which has been given in the past, vocational training, under the Smith-Hughes law; commercial and a general course will be started.

The vocational course, Hofmann said, will provide instructions in carpentry and woodwork for the students. It is believed this course will meet with the approval of students and parents alike.

Preparatory Course

The commercial course will be preparatory to a business career, while the general course includes portions of the other departments offering a general education for high school students, who may or may not plan entering colleges or universities.

Principal Hofmann announced the following faculty members for the year: Miss Marian Lathrop, Wright L. Bovee, Miss Anna Marie Munro and Miss Evelyn D. Reynolds. The latter two are new teachers here. Miss Munro comes from Berkeley, while Miss Reynolds is from South Gate, Los Angeles county. They will replace Miss Dorothy Flammer and Miss Esther Aberscombie.

O'HANRAHAN GIVES COOPERATION AS CAMPAIGN KEYNOTE

In an interview with a representative of the "Sierra Sun," Tim O'Hanrahan, candidate for the office of supervisor of the fifth district, emphasized the need for cooperation between the supervisor and various local sub-divisions of the county; such as the school, fire and sanitary districts, in as much as their official acts many times require the consideration of the county officials.

He pointed out the lack of cooperation in the past with the SERA and

Power Being Installed For Donner Lake Area To Replace Local Plant

Workmen of the Sierra Pacific Power company this week started installation of power into the Donner lake district. The new high line will provide power for W. B. Gelatt's Donner Camp and for residences in the Donner lake district.

In the past the camp has been furnished with electricity by a plant operated by Gelatt, but the new service is expected to be more adequate for the developing community.

Past Matrons Honored By Eastern Star Here

Although Mrs. Susie Gordon left Hobart Mills for Oakland sooner than she had planned, owing to the illness of Mr. Gordon, she was one of the two past matrons of the Truckee Chapter, No. 116, O. E. S. to be honored by the members of the lodge Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Georgia Follett was present to enjoy the affair in her honor and was given a handkerchief shower as was the absent honor guest.

The social hour included the serving of delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Follett will leave Truckee shortly.

Bees will not drink nectar of flowers from which the petals have been removed.

THREE FIRES ARE REPORTED IN THIS AREA DURING WEEK

A carelessly tossed cigarette from the highway is believed to have been the cause of the burning of six acres one mile east of the state line near Fleish the first part of the week.

At first reported to be on the California side, men were rushed to the scene, but due to the fact that a construction crew was near and had a bulldozer to make a fire break the fire did not spread beyond the comparitively small area.

Also reported to the local U. S. Forest service department here a fire two miles east of town where hot ashes started a blaze that was soon extinguished.

Fifty feet of ground burned close to the railroad at Hobart Mill. The cause is believed to have been a fuel spark from a passing train.

ELIGIBLE AGED RECEIVE FIRST AID IN NEW LAW

115 Needy in this County Receive an Average of $31.53

The 115 eligible aged persons in Nevada county received a total of $3,26 or an average of $31.53 per person during the month of July, the state department of social welfare reported this week.

An average of $31.30 was paid to the 44,503 aged persons in California during the month, the report said.

July was the first month the state pension operated under the new law which set $35 as the flat amount to be paid, instead of permitting a range of from $20 to $35. From the $35 was deducted, in each case, any cash income received by those eligible for the pension and certain amounts for free food and rent.

LIONS HEAR ADDRESS ON FIJI ISLANDS AT WEEKLY DINNER MEET

Members of the Truckee Lions club Wednesday evening were taken on an interesting trip to the Fiji islands by Sam T. Meyers, Hobart Mills, who painted a vivid word picture of the romantic South Sea natives, their country, habits and customs. The speaker, a former sailor on a lumber schooner, who has spent considerable time in the islands, held the attention of his score of listeners from the start to the conclusion of the talk.

The address was a feature of the program during the dinner meeting held in the California Cafe and presided over by Vice President Earl Martin, who was responsible for the excellent entertainment. President R. C. Gregory, who has been ill, was unable to be present at the session.

Meyers' discourse was the first of a proposed series of entertainment features to be given at the weekly meetings of the clubs.

THORNTON SELLS OUT TO GARAGE PARTNER

John C. Thornton, who has been associated for seven years with Clair P. Goode in the Standard Auto Service garage at the foot of High street here, has sold his interest to his partner and with Mrs. Thornton will leave at the end of this month for Reno, Nevada, where he has bought an apartment house.

Thornton plans to keep his share of the local Ford agency, however.

Foresters Convene at Lakeland Lodge Resort

Lakeland Lodge near the state line was the scene of a Foresters' convention over Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week. Over 30 supervisors and officials of the service were in attendance.

EXPENDITURES OF COUNTY MAY EXEED 1935-36

Preliminary Budget for Appropriation up 20 Per Cent

LEVY MAY BE LESS

Increases are General in all County Departments Says Report

The preliminary budget of Nevada county for expendable appropriations, as it stood on August 2, exceeded the estimated expenditures of last year by $74,376, or about 26 per cent, according to California Taxpayers' association's study of the preliminary budget.

Because of larger subventions from state and federal sources, together with cash balances carried over from last year, it appears the tax levy would be somewhat less in 1936-37 than it was in 1935-36, the Taxpayers' association stated. A comparison of the proposed budget for 1936-37 with the estimated expenditures of 1935-36 is shown below:

The Comparison

	Estimated Expendit.	Prelim. Budget
General Government	$186,973	$106,063
Protection to persons and Property	27,251	30,290
Health and Sanitation	842	950
Highways and Bridges	67,997	82,025
Charities and Corrections	79,267	98,943
Education, including Schools	7,582	8,373
Recreation	17,650	25,000
Miscellaneous	2,956	3,250
Unappropriated Reserves		10,000
Total Expenditures	$290,518	$364,894
General Reserve in 1936-37 Budget		36,341
TOTAL BUDGET		$401,235

Increase General

Increases are general in all departments, the association pointed out, stating that increased allowances for old age aid and for roads and bridges will not greatly affect the local tax rate, being mostly offset by state and federal grants.

Proposed expenditures by major purposes of expenditure for 1936-37 and estmated expenditures of last year are shown as follows:

	Estimated 1935-36	Budget Estimate 1936-37
Salaries and Wages	$ 97,723	$108,195
Maintenance and Operation	124,534	155,425
Capital Outlay	68,261	91,274
Unappropriated Reserve		10,000
Totals	$290,518	$364,894

CLEANING CONCERN HAS NEW MACHINE

Still another indication that Truckee business men are anxious and willing to keep this district on a par with larger centers in providing service and merchandise was seen this week when Duane Freeman, proprietor of the Truckee Cleaning Works, installed a new National dry cleaning machine.

The new equipment was installed at no small expense, but Freeman explained that it was his desire to keep pace with cleaners in major cities and was not willing that Truckee take a back seat.

Negro Draws Suspended Sentence After Arrest

Howard Jones, 32, San Francisco, was given a 30-day suspended jail sentence when he appeared before Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith here last week charged with stealing a ride on the blind baggage of a west-bound passenger train.

Jones was arrested by Officer A. C. Pfendler.

DEAD MAN NAMED SOLE BENEFICIARY IN TAHOE ESTATE

Mrs. Mary C. Joseph of Tahoe City, who died on July 3, neglected to change her will following the death of her husband, Lewis H Joseph, who was named sole beneficiary of the estate estimated to be $20,000, it was revealed in a petition for letters of administration filed by Lowell L. Sparks, attorney of Auburn, for Eula Lister, a niece.

Other relatives of the deceased are William Pike of Palo Alto and Alexander Pike of Minneapolis, Minn.

FUNERAL HELD FOR TWO MEN AS CAR CRASHES

Car Plunges over Grade at Emigrant Gap; Men Are Killed

Funeral services were held last Saturday at Auburn for Charles E. Barker, 74, and Oscar P. Carpenter, 82, both of Auburn, killed in an automobile accident near Emigrant Gap last week.

Barker met instant death when the car in which the two friends, en route to their favorite fishing stream in Nevada county, went over a steep bank. Carpenter died near Gold Run while en route to a hospital.

Coroner L. R. Jefford, who conducted an investigation, said no inquest will be held.

NEW PLANS PROPOSED BY PLACER OFFICE SEEKER IF ELECTED

A new plan of determining the desires of the people of the district he hopes to serve as supervisor is being promised by Roy E. Duncan, candidate for supervisor in the fifth Placer county district.

Duncan says that if elected he proposes to hold monthly meetings in the various communities of his district to permit the taxpayers to discuss informally their needs and wishes. These same ideas, Duncan said, will be taken before the board and if found practical and possible, will be urged for adoption.

The candidate also declares that each month he will render a financial report of his district, a service to which, he says, the taxpayers are entitled.

Fifty Students Attend Tahoe Grammar School

At the peak of the season 50 pupils were in attendance at the Tahoe Lake grammar school, the largest number ever to attend locally. Joe Henry, local garageman, who owns and operates a licensed automobile, was called upon to assist in conveying the youngsters to and from school as an emergency measure.

VAUDEVILLE SHOW AT BROCKWAY SUNDAY

Residents of Lake Tahoe district Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock will be privileged to hear what is termed a "big time" vaudeville show presented at the King Beach Brockway theatre. The affair is being arranged by Uzla Bermani and his Brockway orchestra, assisted by Yosha Borowsky, famous violinist.

Light Control System Is Being Extended Here

Under the direction of Manager C. E. Edmonds, a crew of men this week was extending the street light control system into the west portion of Truckee. Under the system, the lighting will be controlled from a master clock which turns the lights off and on at a given time.

In the past the electroliers along Commercial row have been thus controlled, but it is planned to extend the system to all parts of town.

MURDER PROBE TURNS TO RENO IN LOCAL CASE

Battered Body of Veteran is Found near Fleish in River

SLAYING IS MYSTERY

Believe McSherry Killed in Reno, Body Brought to Fleish

Probe into the mysterious death of Joseph McSherry, 45, whose battered body was found in the Truckee river at Fleish last Friday, turned to Reno this week as Nevada and Sierra county officials decided that McSherry was murdered in Nevada and the body brought to a point above Fleish and tossed into the river.

McSherry, a discharged soldier and World war veteran, had been seen in Truckee for several days before the finding of his body, but more recently had gone to Reno, where he was ordered from the city by police as a vagrant.

Three Possibilities

Three possibilities to account for the man's death and the presence of his body were advanced:

He might have been slugged to death in Reno, where he was released from jail yesterday after a four-day incarceration for vagrancy, and his body transported to near where it was found and disposed of by being tossed into the river.

He might have been attacked while riding a freight train en route back to Dixon where he had been employed formerly, and his body thrown into the river as the train crossed a trestle about a mile above the dam.

He might have fallen from a train and incurred the injuries that caused his death when has head struck a projection in the trestle.

Died from Blow

W. H. Laity, a Truckee mortician in charge of the body, said the man apparently died of a basal fracture of the skull, caused by a blow from some instrument such as a gun butt, a club or an iron bar.

No Water in Lungs

Deputy Coroner Benjamin Tonini of Truckee said an autopsy showed the man had been dead before his body entered the river.

From the fact the blood on the body was frest the authorities are convinced he met death only a brief while before it was found.

SCHWAB MAKES LAST MINUTE CALL UPON VOTERS OF DISTRICT

Stuart T. Schwab, candidate for supervisor of the fifth Placer county district, was in the Tahoe-Truckee region this week making a last minute call on his friends and voters of the area in behalf of his candidacy.

Schwab, in explaining his desire to serve his district as a member of the board of supervisors, said:

"It has been a disappointment that I could not meet all the voters of the district, but to them as to those I have contacted, I have only one promise to make. That is to serve and work to the best of my ability."

Schwab branded as false reports that the fifth Placer district was thousands of dollars in "the red" when the incumbent candidate took office in 1932. He said he had made a personal investigation and that o December 31 of that year he found the figure to be exactly $2,458.97.

SEAWELL HAS MESSAGE FOR DISTRICT VOTERS

Unable to again visit his friends in this district before the primary election next Tuesday, Senator J. L. Seawell, candidate for re-election to the state senate from the seventh district, has written a message which appears on page two of this issue of the Sierra Sun.

KING FOR A DAY

NEXT TUESDAY again in California, the voter ascends the throne to be king for a day. For twelve hours his word will be law. Another primary election is on.

Candidates for the State Assembly, and for the Congress of th eUnited States, will succeed or fail in becoming the chosen ones of their party for the final race in November They must obey the decree of the all powerful man with the vote.

There are plenty of reasons why this election is worth a trip to the polls. For one thing, the effectiveness of the man you're supporting for President, if he's elected in November, may depend on the calibre of his congressmen. He can't put through his policies with incompetent or hostile ones.

Then, too, this is the opportunity for the voter who so vociferously berates Congress or California's Legislature when they're in session, to speak his mind. Here is his chance to have a hand in choosing whom he wants in the hallowed halls at Washington or Sacramento. And also, after this election observers will draw various conclusions as to the trend in relative strength of the two parties in California.

Next Tuesday the voter should relish this chance to ascend the throne and be king for a day in his own democracy.

"KNOCK, KNOCK!"

THAT "knock, knock" punning epidemic now sweeping the country has serious-minded men wondering if a mild touch of mass insanity may be at the base of it, indicating the temper of the times.

The San Francisco News says, in effect, that it's not the heat, but the politics, and illustrates this way. Someone says "knock, knock!" and someone else says "Who's there?" "Landon," is the reply. "Landon who?" And the answer, "Landon Bridge is falling down." Or, says the News, it might be Roosevelt. "Roosevelt who?" "When I Woke and Roosevelt Awful." The idea seems to be that the worst pun is the best answer.

Now the News goes on to deplore the fact that this "knock, knock" idea is altogether too prevalent in politics, that there is too much "knocking" of candidates and policies, and not nearly enough of calm, informative discussion.

While this is unquestionably true, it might be suggested that all the knocking could be made to serve a good and justifiable purpose. It could be directed against quack schemes, "isms," deceitful proposals—all things obviously undesirable or dangerous. Incessant, continuous knocking is deserved.

As for the game "knock, knock," the theory that it reflects a mild touch of mass political insanity seems as good an explanation as any. Some of the monstrous puns now going the rounds have prompted people to ask whether it was the heat or the humidity. Probably it's neither. Probably it's the politics.

AS SUMMER WANES

SO FAR AS weather is concerned, summer merges into autumn almost imperceptibly in California, and often lingers until winter; but here as everywhere, nevertheless, we are concious that a season is ending and another beginning.

Everyone is getting ready for autumn. Stores and shops, after the usual lull during the hottest months, are all spruced up and stocked with the newest fall things, and already are bustling in a prelude promising to bring the best autumn buying wave since 1929.

Getting ready for autumn—buying things—is an exciting experience for the individual. But for whole business communities, this trade is the life blood of existence. Much of it used to drain away from smaller centers to the big metropolitan centers. Not so today. People are finding it no longer necessary to make arduous pilgrimages to Reno or Sacramento shopping areas. They can get the same thing and same prices at home.

In any case, as everyone begins "getting ready for autumn," the seasonal buying wave is already under way. And all of us know that whether a business community flourishes or fades, depends largely on the buying habits of those who live in or around it.

People have learned to buy at home. They know it pays.

AMERICA DETESTS "ISMS"

EVERY American who has watched the bloody, brutal horror of the communist-fascist civil war in Spain must have reflected, at one time or another during the conflict, upon his good fortune in being American.

Of course we have our scattered communist agitators. And we have had our Black Legion. But nowhere in the world is the possibility of a march on the capital by fascists, or violent seizure of property by communists, less remote than in this nation today.

Politically Speaking

By GEORGE E. HELMER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 20—(UP)—Republican leaders in Sacramento were none too happy after John Hamilton, chief of the Gov. Alf M. Landon campaign forces, had visited here to start the official Landon drive in California.

Followers of Gov. Frank F. Merriam were a bit irked because the chief executive, who threw his support to Landon several months ago, was not invited to accompany Hamilton on his California tour; because some of the strong Landon workers who also were part of the Merriam machine were not included on the official reception committee.

Then, too, republicans generally were disappointed because only between 1,000 and 1,500 persons entered the large municipal auditorium to hear Hamilton talk. Three times that number turned out to hear Dr. F. E. Townsend several weeks earlier.

In the governor's outer offices the following day, Hamilton's visit was almost the sole topic of discussion. Overheard:

"If you'd taken away the state employes, many of whom had been ordered to attend, and the press, there wouldn't have been more than a hundred persons at the meeting."

"Hamilton indicated that the republicans were going to win without California. If that's the case, why should we worry about working to pull California into the G.O.P. column?"

"Yeah, but if you don't work, how do you expect to get any appointments if Landon wins?"

"I heard the democrats are so sure of California that they aren't even going to send anybody out here, but will concentrate on some of the eastern states that appear doubtful."

"From Hamilton's speech, I gathered that this was a campaign between Jim Farley and Hamilton, rather than President Roosevelt and Landon."

"Yeah, it's a good build-up for Hamilton, all right."

Some of Merriam's lieutenants objected because Hamilton conferred only with wealthy and influential political and financial leaders who are close to Herbert Hoover, and did not call in any of the "ward heeler" types who are recognized as controllers of a large number of votes.

The United Progressive Recall committee, one group which headed the recall movement against Governor Merriam, announced it doubted whether the proposed recall would qualify for the Noverber ballot, since sufficent signatures had not been obtained by August 15.

The committee apparently had been misinformed regarding the recall election law, which provides that, in this case, the lientenant governor would be required to call a recall election no sooner than 60 days or later than 80 days after the recall had qualified. That would give the recall workers until September 3 to qualify the proposal if they wished it to be made a part of the November campaign.

There is, however, no method of forcing it on the November ballot. That would be entirely up to Lt. Gov. George J. Hatfield. Should a recall be qualified by September 3, Hatfield could call an election for any day between November 3 (date of the general election) and November 23.

Employes of the board of equalization and particularily those working in the sales tax division were disturbed by Assemblyman Leon M. Donihue's statement that evidence indicated no serious attempt had been made to collect all the sales and liquor taxes due California.

In an effort to disprove that contention, T. H. Mugford, chief of the sales tax division, said that California was leading all other states in the percentage of collections. As a specific example, he chose Ohio, with a population slightly more than California.

Each state has a 3 per cent sales tax, but California's per capita collection amounts to $11.69 per year, with food exempt, while Ohio's is $7.94 with food included.

Along the same line, Dixwell Pierce, secretary of the board, said California collected a higher percentage of its liquor taxes than any other state, and offered detailed reports in suport of his argument.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE SEVENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT

On Tuesday, the 25th of August, you will decide who is to represent you for the next four years in the State Senate.

As the incumbent candidate for re-election I have submitted my record for your consideration. It has been my privilege to have served you in both houses of the Legislature and I have at all times given my best efforts to promote the welfare of my district.

I do not believe it is necessary for me to mention my mining record as all mine operators and mine workers are familiar with my efforts in their behalf.

My opponents have talked about roads that Mr. Bigelow has built. Since I have represented this district I have obtained over Six and One-Half Millions of Dollars in road construction and improvements which I believe will overshadow anything the opposition can produce.

It has always been my policy as a Legislator to carefully watch legislation affecting our educational system, the welfare of our farmers, of labor, independent merchants, and have sponsored many bills which have brought great benefit to these people. My efforts have made possible the low tax rate now enjoyed in my district which speaks of my actions regarding tax matters.

My record has been approved by Labor, California Retail Hardware Association, California Retail Grocers and Merchants Association, California Master Barbers Association, Retail Druggists Association, State Mining Association, Sportsmens Associations, Old Age Pension Groups, California Teachers Association, Cattlemens Association, California Farm Bureau and many women's clubs. This should prove that my record has met with general public approval.

If I am re-elected I pledge myself to a continuation of past policies and will work at all times for my district's welfare.

I take this opportunity of thanking my many friends who have worked in my behalf and request that all voters go to the polls and exercise their American Citizenship.

Sincerely,
JERROLD L. SEAWELL
State Senator.

FOREST EQUIPMENT TO SERVE THIS DISTRICT

Forest Supervisor Nelson of Placer County reports the arrival of several small radio sets at the Tahoe National forest. These are for use in communication on fires where the messenger service has been found too slow. They are portable, being about the size of a lunch box. Some new modern road machinery, also just received, should result in a big improvement in some of the remote mountain roads which the Forest service maintains, he said.

A ten-ton diesel road maintainer, a 16-ton diesel Caterpillar tractor and a three and a half ton hydraulic ripper are now in use on the Forest Hill divide. One maintainer will be used east of the Donner summit.

TAHOE REGION NEWS

CARELESSNESS IS CAUSE OF CRASH; TWO ARE INJURED

Too much cannot be said of the careless motorists who invade Tahoe's highways during the summer vacation season.

On Sunday one of this type headed a procession of three or four cars which were proceeding toward Ward creek down the hill above Knox's store in Tahoe park. Without even the pretense of a hand signal he suddenly stopped directly in the highway, the succeeding cars experiencing the greatest of difficulty in stopping in time to prevent a triple tragedy.

One man was not so successful and in the unexpected use of emergency brakes his car skidded in the loose gravel and over turned.

He was Ralph Molina of Lathrop who was enjoying a vacation jaunt to Tahoe. Two of his passengers, Miss Patricia Hadlick, 15, and Miss Ruth Wilbur, 13, both of Lathrop, were injured painfully, Miss Hadlick receiving a badly cut knee and bruises and Miss Wilbur suffering foot injuries. Dr. C. B. Pedersen of the Tavern rendered first aid.

The driver of the overturned car was not hurt and the thoughtless driver who failed to give the proper traffic signal was not identified in the ensuing confusion.

GIRL CYCLIST INJURED IN LAKE TAHOE AREA

Miss Grace Dixon, about 19, of San Rafael, a visitor at the R. Stanley Dollar home at Tahoe was the victim of an unusual accident on Sunday.

Enjoying a spin on her bicycle over Tahoe highways she attempted a descent of the Dollar hill. Enroute somewhere her brakes failed to hold and she attempted to stop the speeding wheel with her foot. She was thrown off and received a painfully injured knee and numberless leg scratches which were dressed by Dr. Pedersen.

Placerville Visitor

Miss Claire Holden of Placerville, who has been the guest at Tahoe of Mrs. E. D. Friedman in the Bettencourt Tract for five weeks, has returned to her home.

Host at Sunnyside

Mrs. J. L. Debenedetti, Sr., has entertained extensively at her attractive summer home since her early advent in June. Latest guests have included the Misses Mary, Elsie and Rusty Barrett of San Mateo, Margaret Barry of San Francisco, Carmel O'Keefe of Menlo Park, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Williams of San Mateo, Mrs. G. O'Grady, Mrs. Charles Ruegg and brothers Emilio and David Cuneo of San Mateo.

Goes to San Mateo

Jack Debenedetti, Jr., departed on Sunday to remain a week on business at San Mateo.

Surprise Visitors

Surprise visitors last week at the Debenedetti home were Mr. and Mrs. George Van Vliet of Belmont who eloped to Carson and were married quite unexpectedly. The bride was the former Miss Amy Welch of San Mateo, classmate of the Debenedetti girls, Rose Mary and Lorraine. Mr. Van Vliet is employed by the Standard Oil company at Belmont where the young couple will make their home.

Leaves for Carson

Mrs. Fred Smith, who left for Carson City a few weeks ago, has returned to Tahoe again. A change of plans was caused by unforseen circumstances.

Visit Timberland

Mrs. David Hemstreet of Marysville and friends were recent visitors at their home in Timberland Tract.

Receives Sad News

Mrs. Edith Rose, Tahoe resident, Sunday received the news of the death of her mother, Mrs. St. Clair, in Manchester, England. She had read a letter received from her mother and the news was tragically unexpected. For some time Mrs. Rose had been planning a trip to England to see her family and was to have left this fall.

BUD WALKER HERO IN NEAR TRAGEDY; SAVES LAKE VISITOR

Bud Walker, 17-year-old nephew of Tahoe's highway patrolman Gene Walker, proved himself a hero on Sunday when he dove into the lake near the Tahoe Mercantile pier in answer to the distressing screams of a young lady who was clinging tearfully to the underpiling, unable to make her way to safety.

Whether she became exhausted or was the victim of sudden cramps was not ascertained.

Without hesitation Bud swam to her rescue and brought her safely to the landing.

MODOC INSTRUCTOR IS VISITOR IN LAKE AREA

Harold Darby, recent graduate of Chico college, was an interested visitor at Tahoe on last Wednesday where he spent the day observing the methods employed in instructing local children.

Darby, who is employed by the Standard Oil company when not attending school, will assume full charge of a rural school in Modoc county where he will teach 25 pupils. He received many pointers from the two local teachors, Mrs. Myrtle Gallinger and Mrs. Amy Stineman, who gladly expounded the theories of modern education.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE FIFTH SUPERVISORIAL DISTRICT OF PLACER COUNTY

There have been many reports handed around the district as to alleged amount our present road supervisor was "in the red" on the road fund when he took over the office in January, 1932.

The amount has been reported as high as $30,000, which of course is a ridiculous report to make.

In order to correct any erroneous impressions, I personally took the figures from the record and found the sum to be as of Dec. 31, 1932, exactly $2,458.97.

That of course is not a pleasant position for a new encumbent to step into and the figures are published in the interest of fairness and to correct any false or misleading reports that are current.

There was collected from the Fifth Supervisorial district during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1935 and ending June 30, 193 the sum of $18,195.67.

In addition to this collection large sums from the various federal and state relief projects have been available for expenditure on the roads of this district.

During the fiscal year from the $18,195.67 collected in taxes, $1837.99 has been expended in the Lake Tahoe district.

It has been impossible to fulfill my desire and meet all the voters of the district, but to those I have not seen I take this opportunity of soliciting your support at the election next Tuesday.

If selected as your choice for supervisor, I shall make it my duty and pleasure to work for the entire district at all times. I am under no obligation, have made no promises, but assure you that I shall do my utmost to justify the confidence which you place in me.

I was born and raised in the district which I hope to serve. I am familiar with the needs of that district and having had 18 years of business experience am confident that I am qualified to administer to those needs.

I have conducted a clean campaign, I have not and will not knock my opponents and my only promise is that I will do my best and work hard for the best interests of my district if elected. Thank you most heartily.

DAUGHTER OF TAHOE MATRON SUCCUMBS

Mrs. Gertrude Broach, housekeeper for Chris Nielsen, received an emergency call from Reno on Saturday, from the bedside of her eldest daughter, Mrs. Joe Kirkley, wife of a Reno detective.

Mrs. Kirkley was operated upon Saturday and was given a blood transfusion in efforts to save her life. However, peritonitis set in and she passed away at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

All relatives and friends were notified and a sister in Alaska chartered a special plane in which to make the trip, only to have to cancel it when she succumbed to nervous collapse and was unable to leave. Mrs. Kirkley leaves also a little 10-year-old daughter and husband.

Funeral services were held from Ross-Burke Funeral parlors in Reno under the direction of the Eastern Star.

NORDEN NEWS

(By C. W. KRAMER)

After several days of near sultry weather a pleasant change, assisted by cooling southerly breezes, settled over the Sierras on Monday evening, much to the delight of all.

Although reluctant to have the former owner and managing editor of the Sierra Sun leave her responsible position, the many readers of her paper have consoled themselves that Mrs. Elizabeth Bavier will and can continue her valued asset to the city of Truckee in serving them as their efficient postmistress, her success is our many wishes.

With the announcement in last week's issue of the Sierra Sun that the ownership of that worthy paper for this region was taken over by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barrett of Woodland and also of Southern California, the residents of this section wish them well in their new undertaking as Truckee and surrounding territory have room for them and will go far in making them feel at home in lending every assistance and help in their new location, in which they will find cooperation from all.

Word has been received that J. Gordon Cran of B & B 113 of Cisco was rushed to the Southern Pacific General hospital for observation by Dr. J. H. Bernard of Truckee, word is being awaited as to his condition. It is hoped that Cran will be released soon and much improved in health.

Mrs. Clarence Libby spent a week in Sacramento among relatives and friends. She returned home much elated over her outing.

After five years residence in Norden, the Elmer Eversult, Jr., family has moved to Sacramento where his health, it is hoped, will be greatly

Philanthropic Club to Care for Needy Folks

(By SWANEE)

I am happy to report that it never will be necessary for any Tahoe resident or family to remain in the throes of want or discomfort as long as the Meeks' Bay H. and W. Philanthropic club remains in existence. Recently your correspondent was appointed their agent in Tahoe City and vicinity and it will be appreciated if any needy cases are reported to me immediately.

All information will be regarded as strictly confidential and all worthy cases will receive prompt attention. Any family having wearable clothing which they no longer need may leave them either in my care or in the care of the H and W club at Meeks Bay for distribution. A number of lake families would be grateful for garments to make over. Call Tahoe City 66-J and clothing will be collected.

Placer Junior College Will be Opened Soon as Many Courses Announced

Nevada county high school graduates will be welcomed at the Placer Junior college, in Auburn, which opens its doors August 31, according to Dr. John Napier, principal of the institution.

Dr. Napier announced the appointment of a faculty of 16 instructors, headed by Wyman Olson, associate dean, to care for the first classes on August 31.

Agriculture, commercial and university transfer courses will be stressed. A strong course in geology will be offered this year, looking forward in time to a strong course in practical mining.

Courses will be given in fruit growing, soils, forestry and botany.

R. D. Richardson, a graduate of Utah State college, will give the courses in agriculture, while Miss Ruth Wall with a master's degree from University of California in her specialty, will handle botany.

Strong commercial courses featuring shorthand, typing, bookkeeping, accounting and commercial law, will also be given by Robert E. Williams a graduate of the College of Commerce, Oregon State college, and Richard A. Hoffman, graduate of Stanford university.

University transfer courses will be given by Dr. Howard C. Benedice, who took his B.A. and M.A. from Stanford, and his Ph. D. from Northwestern in chemistry; by Wyman E. Olson who took his graduate work at the University of California and by Frederick H. Gerken who took his B. A. and M.A. degrees at the University of California.

FOREST FIRE MENANCE OBJECT OF ATTACK BY RANCHERS, TIMBERMEN

With 10,000 acres burned over and laid waste by the recent disastrous mountain fire near Gilroy Hot springs, cattle ranchers today served formal notice they will not tolerate hunting or trespassing upon their property. Some of the ranchers expressed the opinion that the fire had been deliberately set by deer hunters in order to scare out the deer.

Santa Clara county has become convinced that fires, either light or heavy burning, do not pay. In addition to the destruction of young timber, orchards, vineyards and property, fires destroy an immense amount of range and game. The stockmen in the areas around the recent 100,000-acre fire in the Mt. Hamilton hills are demanding that hunters be kept out of their range. The Fish and Game commission is investigating the game loss with the intention of closing deer and quail hunting for this year, if necessary, within this burn.

Placer county is also recognizing this fire menance, and recently passed an up-to-date fire ordinance. The Lions club of Colfax has formed a Forestry association to promote fire prevention. These people recognize that if there is one thing that will make a vacationist back up and change his plans, it is a big column of smoke ahead of him.

Four of the mermen who represent Uncle Sam in the diving events at the Olympic games in Berlin. They are, left to right: Dick Degener and Elbert Root of Detroit, Marshall Wayne of Miami, Fla., and Al Green of Chicago. Leading athletes in many sports from the United States and other countries have gathered in the German capital for the contests. From Olympia, Greece, scene of the first games in ancient times, a torch was lighted and carried by runners to Berlin, symbolizing the start of the games.

PWA that had resulted in the loss of hundreds of dollars that might have been obtained and used in this district for permanent improvements without expense to the taxpayers. He spoke particularily of the deplorable flood coditions each spring along Trout creek, at the eastern entrance of Truckee. Federal aid for the remedying of this condition has been obtainable for the past two years.

O'Hanrahan stressed his intentions, if elected, to conscientiously investigate the conditions of those applying for state old age pensions now in effect under the national social security act and promised that each and every case would be given his careful and immediate attention.

He further emphasized that he always would welcome suggestions from any of the taxpayers or civic organizations in any matter for the public welfare.

"The great natural recreational facilities that this district affords should be capitalized and promoted," said O'Hanrahan, "at every opportunity and I promise to lend my whole-hearted support to this end.

"I solicit your support at the election next Tuesday and will give my district the fullest representation at the county seat, if elected," O'Hanrahan conluded.

ROY E. DUNCAN

If elected, it will be my pleasure and duty, to hold at least one open meeting each month in each district so that the people may have the opportunity of discussing with me the needs and problems of their various communities. That, I believe, will promote closer coordination between your representative on the board and the people he hopes to serve.

I shall also deem it my duty to make a monthly accounting of the money available and the amount spent in the fifth district so that the tax payers may know how and where their money is being distributed.
